Re: Mikovits v. Garcia, et al.

Dear Ms. Mikovits:

Concurrently with this letter, I am sending you my initial responsive pleading by both e-mail and regular mail. I am the attorney for Defendant Sheriff Geoff Dean, as well as purported defendants Pentis and De Cesari. The initial responsive pleading is a motion to dismiss.

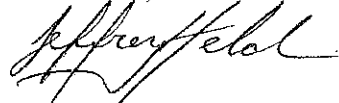

The exact text of the motion to dismiss is provided to you. It is attached in PDF to the e-mail and in paper form enclosed in the regular mailed set to you.

The provision of the exact text of the motion to dismiss satisfies my client's pre-filing conference responsibility under Central District Local Rule 7-3. I will telephone you on February 3, 2015, at the phone number listed in your complaint to verify your receipt of the motion to dismiss the complaint and to address any questions or comments you may have.

If, after reading the motion to dismiss, you wish to concede dismissal, my client is willing to waive costs and fees. Please feel free to contact me should you have any concerns.

Very truly yours,

WISOTSKY, PROCTER & SHYER
