STIPULATION TO COORDINATE FILINGS OF OPPOSITIONS

The various defendants in the within case have filed motions to dismiss and/or motions to strike, on various dates, and consequently, this Court has set various dates for opposition papers to be filed, while vacating the several hearing dates and ordering submission on the papers. This scheduling has caused the dates to be un-uniform, and difficult to manage from the perspective of the plaintiff.

In order to accommodate a more orderly flow, and for the plaintiff to attempt to involve counsel in this case, a more uniform schedule is sought.

Upon conferring with each of the defense counsel, and at the request of the plaintiff, it is HEREBY STIPULATED that the opposition to the defendants' various Motions to Dismiss, and all other motions filed to date, will be due on March 25, 2015, the latest date selected by the court from among the filings now on record. In order to match the expressed desire of the Court, it is FURTHER STIPULATED that the defendants' shall have until April 15, 2015, to file their reply papers, if any.

WHEREFORE, the parties respectfully ask that This Honorable Court ORDER that the Plaintiff shall have until no later than March 25, 2015, to file her oppositions to all pending defense motions, and that the defendants shall have until no later than April 15, 2015, to file reply memoranda.

Dated: March 5, 2015

Respectfully Submitted,

Plaintiff, Judy A. Mikovits, Pro Se,
